UCLA School of Law is pleased to present the Negotiation and Conflict Resolution Colloquium presented by the Negotiation and Conflict Resolution Program January - April 2011

Thursdays, 5:00 - 6:40 p.m.

UCLA School of Law
A. Barry Cappello Moot Court Room - 1310

All colloquium presentations are free and open to the public.

CLE credit (1.5 hours per presentation) will be available for members of the California Bar at no charge.

For more information see www.law.ucla.edu/negotiation.
NEGOTIATION AND CONFLICT RESOLUTION PROGRAM

UCLA School of Law's Negotiation and Conflict Resolution Program promotes an interdisciplinary approach to understanding and managing the competition for scarce resources in legal, business and interpersonal contexts. The program's broad mission includes the study of private and public transactions and disputes in domestic and international arenas. It brings together a community of scholars, students and practitioners from a variety of fields across UCLA and throughout Southern California with overlapping scholarly, teaching and practice interests. Please join us for our exciting events in the winter and spring of 2011.

COLOQUIUM SCHEDULE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Speaker</th>
<th>Affiliation</th>
<th>Topic</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>January 27</td>
<td>Richard Birke</td>
<td>Willamette University College of Law</td>
<td>Neuroscience and Settlement: Practical Implications for Negotiators and Mediators</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February 3</td>
<td>Igor Linkov</td>
<td>Carnegie Mellon University</td>
<td>Multi-Criteria Decision Analysis and Value of Information Analysis: Applications for Conflict Resolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February 17</td>
<td>Carol B. Liebman</td>
<td>Columbia Law School</td>
<td>Mediating Disputes at the End of Life and After Medical Errors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>February 24</td>
<td>Andrea K. Schneider</td>
<td>Marquette University Law School</td>
<td>Negotiation and Gender: No Big Deal for Lawyers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>March 10</td>
<td>Jared Curhan</td>
<td>Massachusetts Institute of Technology</td>
<td>The Objective Value of Subjective Value in Negotiation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>March 17</td>
<td>Robert H. Bates</td>
<td>Harvard University</td>
<td>The Possibility of Political Order</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 7</td>
<td>Elizabeth F. Loftus</td>
<td>University of California, Irvine</td>
<td>Manufacturing Memories</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 14</td>
<td>Jared Diamond</td>
<td>University of California, Los Angeles</td>
<td>Compensation for the Death of a Child</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PROGRAM FACULTY

RUSSELL KOROBKIN | UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW   | FACULTY DIRECTOR
Professor Korobkin is author of Negotiation Theory and Strategy (2d ed.) and more than 50 articles on negotiation, mediation, and arbitration law. He teaches negotiation to law, MBA, and undergraduate students on four continents.

CORINNE BENDERSKY | UCLA SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT   | SENIOR FELLOW
Professor Bendersky specializes in conflict management and negotiation within organizations. She recently received a “Best Empirical Paper” award from the Academy of Management.

DANIEL J. BUSSEL | UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW   | SENIOR FELLOW
Professor Bussel is coauthor of Bankruptcy (8th ed.) and Contract Law and its Application (7th ed.), a fellow at the American College of Bankruptcy, and an active practitioner of bankruptcy law.

KENNETH N. KLEE | UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW   | SENIOR FELLOW
Professor Klee is a founding partner of Klee, Tuchin, Bogdanoff & Stern LLP, as well as more than 30 articles and several casebooks and treatises on bankruptcy law.

TIMOTHY F. MALLOY | UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW   | SENIOR FELLOW
Professor Malloy studies the interactions between regulators and business organizations. He is Faculty Director of the UCLA Law and Environmental Health Sustainable Technology Policy Program.

FORREST MOSTEN | UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW   | SENIOR FELLOW
Professor Mosten teaches and practices mediation and collaborative law. He is the recipient of the Southern California Peacemaker of the Year, Louis M. Brown Conflict Prevention, and ABA Lifetime Achievement awards.

KATHERINE V.W. STONE | UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW   | SENIOR FELLOW
Professor Stone studies arbitration and employment law. She is the author of Arbitration (3d ed.), Private Justice, and From Widgets to Digits: Employment Regulation for the Changing Workplace.

www.law.ucla.edu/negotiation